

SAFE+EQUAL

PRIMARY PREVENTION TRAINING

 2026

Our engaging trainings help you to build the skills and knowledge needed for strong and intersectional primary prevention activity where we live, learn, work and play.

Our training offerings include:

- Prevention Foundations
- Prevention Programs
- Primary Prevention Foundations eLearn
- Small Steps: Bystander Action for Gender Equality
- Unpacking Resistance
- Organisational Resistance: Advancing Practice
- Responding to Disclosures in Prevention

safeandequal.org.au

Prevention Foundations

This interactive half-day training provides prevention practitioners (especially those new to the sector) with foundational skills and an understanding of the evidence on what drives violence against women, the actions we can all take to prevent violence from occurring.

Wednesday 29 April 2026 $260
Tuesday 16 June 2026
Tuesday 15 September 2026

Learn more and register here.

Prevention Programs

This interactive one-day training is for professionals who want to lead initiatives against family and gender-based violence. It provides the skills to design and implement impactful programs with an intersectional lens, helping you create tangible change.

Tuesday 21 July 2026 $300
Tuesday 20 October 2026

Learn more and register here.

We've updated our Prevention in Practice offerings! To provide more flexible and effective training, the program has been divided into two new, distinct packages: Prevention Foundations and Prevention Programs

Prevention Foundations eLearn

Our eLearn gives you the opportunity to complete our Prevention Foundations training at your pace. This interactive online module equips you with key knowledge to being your journey in the prevention sector

Self-paced

$110

Learn more and register here.

“ Thank you for creating a safe and inclusive learning environment. The training struck a great balance between reflection, practical tools, and collaborative learning. I appreciated the emphasis on intersectionality and practitioner wellbeing—both often overlooked in prevention work.

Prevention in Practice Participant, 2025

Small Steps: Bystander Action for Equality

This half-day course is designed for workplaces and individuals who want to learn how to be an active bystander by safely and effectively challenging sexist attitudes in your professional and personal life.

Tuesday 24 March 2026 $260
Tuesday 25 August 2026

Learn more and register here.

Unpacking Resistance

This one-day training helps you manage interpersonal pushback in primary prevention work. The course provides practical skills to turn resistance into a catalyst for change, using real-world examples and role-play to build confidence in navigating difficult conversations.

Thursday 26 February 2026 $300
Wednesday 13 May 2026
Thursday 16 July 2026
Thursday 3 September 2026
Thursday 5 November 2026

Learn more and register here.

Responding to Disclosures in Prevention

This three-hour training will equip you to confidently support colleagues who disclose violence. You'll gain a deeper understanding of the dynamics and indicators of violence, and develop effective response strategies. The training will explore different ways to build safety and support within the design and delivery of prevention activities.

Thursday 25 June 2026 $230
Thursday 15 October 2026

Learn more and register here.

Organisational Resistance: Advancing Practice

This interactive one-day training is designed to advance your understanding and application of strategies and tools to build organisational support and commitment for social change addressing the drivers of family and gender-based violence, and proactively plan for and manage resistance to this change.

Wednesday 27 May 2026 $300
Thursday 6 August 2026
Thursday 29 October 2026

Learn more and register here.

“ Thank you for facilitating such an engaging and practical session. I feel more confident about responding to resistance, engaging decision-makers, and supporting cultural change in my own work.

Organisational Resistance Participant, 2025

Tailored training

We deliver tailored training packages to suit your organisation's needs for preventing family and gender-based violence. Our experienced trainers have facilitated primary prevention training for a range of organisations, from large retailers to local councils, with outstanding feedback.

Visit safeandequal.org.au or contact us at training@safeandequal.org.au.

